

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Francisco, CA - June 29, 2006 - Andrew Lane has been invited to pour its award-winning, eclectic and fun wines in the VIP area at San Francisco magazine's premier Best of the Bay event. Andrew Dickson, winemaker at Andrew Lane, will be on hand to personally pour the winery's top Gamay Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon, Sauvignon Blanc, and barrel samples of the yet to be released, Oakville-hillside Cabernet Franc.

San Francisco magazine's Best of the Bay Area party celebrates the release of its annual guide to all that makes the city the best place to live, work, and play.

"San Francisco magazine, and especially its 'Best of the Bay' issue, is considered one of the industry's leading sources for everything San Francisco's Bay Area has to offer," said Andrew Lane. "We are honored that we were selected to pour our limited-production wines which are a perfect match for San Francisco magazine's readers."

Attendees will relish and revel in luxe libations, irresistible hors d'oeuvres, live entertainment, spa treatments, exploratory lounges, a silent auction, gift bags, and much more.

WHAT: San Francisco's Best of the Bay Area party

WHEN: Thursday, June 29, 2006, 6 - 11 p.m.

WHERE: Concourse Exhibition Center

The Wines

Andrew Lane Gamay Noir has the mouth-feel and velvety texture of a Pinot Noir, with a more vibrant, red fruit character. It offers a lively bouquet and flavor of fresh red cherries, red currants, with touches of strawberry and spice on the finish.

Andrew Lane's 2002 Cabernet Sauvignon showcases more fruit ripeness than traditional Napa Cabs. Its hue is deep ruby in color with aromas of bing cherries, strawberries, red roses, cacao and a slight hint of cedar. A thick mouthfeel delivers fresh flavors of berries and plum with lush, soft tannins and a delicious finish.
